How To Find a Specific Legal Case

Follow the instructions below to find a specific case in LexisNexis Academic.

You can quickly find a case on LexisNexis Academic in various different ways. These are the two quickest and simplest ways. However, if you need a more narrow, specific search, use the "Federal & State Cases" form in the Search By Content Type section.

Look up a Legal Case Widget

1. Click on the Look up a Legal Case Widget to expand
2. Type in the citation number or party names
3. Click Go
1. Type your citation or party name in the main search box
2. Click the Advanced Options section
3. Deselect all of the other sources and focus your search to Federal & State Cases
4. Click Apply
5. Click Search